State of Rio de Janeiro

3. The Communists in Petropolis have been very active recently in organization work. In the Fabrica de Tecelagem Esmeralda in that city, Alberto Frederico Loranga and Hermenegildo Kaeseki, well-known Communist employees of the factory, started a movement demanding more pay and shorter hours. They induced a dozen sympathizers in the factory to sign a manifesto listing the demands of the workers.
4. Other militant Communists in Petropolis have just founded the Uniao Geral dos Trabalhadores em Tecelagem do Estado do Rio, a weavers' union. The following Communists hold offices in this organization:

President	Arquimedes Brito
1st Vice President	Venina Cruz
2nd Vice President	Nilo Cardoso
3rd Vice President	Manoel Ferreira Lima
Secretary General	Antonio Gotelipe(5)
1st Secretary	Ademar Goncalves Moreira
2nd Secretary	Jose Amancio
1st Treasurer	Edna Nunes da Silva
2nd Treasurer	Waldemar Paz

Associacao Beneficente dos Empregados da Cia. Docas de Santos

5. Until recently the Associacao Beneficente dos Empregados da Cia. Docas de Santos (Workers' Welfare Association of the Santos Dock Company) was under the control of the Communists in general and of Arlindo Alves Lucena⁽⁶⁾ in particular and was one of the major sources of Communist propaganda among the dock workers. The Communist campaign to re-elect Communist directors at the end of 1949, however, failed, and the anti-Communists won a majority of the posts.
6. The non-political Board which is now charged with the administration of this Association until the situation permits holding new elections issued a prospectus on 7 February 1950 stating that the previous administration had left debts amounting to Cr.$ 5,000,000.00. According to the prospectus, some of the Association's expenditures for 1949 included:
 - a. Expenses incurred maintaining the newspaper 1 Voz Portuaria Cr.$ 60,468.00; publications in newspapers; Cr.$ 43,233.00, or a total of Cr.$ 103,701.00 just on publicity.
 - b. The Women's Department during its short existence cost Cr.$ 33,568.80.
 - c. Travel for the directors during 1949 Cr.$ 70,572.90 and Cr.$ 36,460.00 in representations.
 - d. Salaries for the directors in the amount of Cr.$ 134,712.00.
